

Diverse Teaching Experience

High School EL Teacher 2020 - Present

At Dublin Scioto High School, as a new EL Department Chair, I synergized a new team of teachers to revitalize the EL Program to more efficiently and productively grow students.

Elementary EL Teacher 2013-2020

At three different schools, I intentionally collaborated with teachers, community members, parents, and students to create a culture of belonging for all students.

EL Teacher at Ohio State 2009 - 2013

I participated in a program renewal that redefined the curriculum and created new classes that properly prepared international students for learning in the 21st Century collegiate environment.

ESL Teacher at CRIS 2009 - 2010

At Community Refugee and Immigration Services, I cultivated relationships with community members, taught refugees essential language skills, and connected families to resources and opportunities in the greater Columbus area.

Oakstone Academy 2008 - 2009

As a linguistic consultant at school for students with Autism, I helped create strategies and materials to improve students' behavior and communication abilities.

Teacher at Ohio University 2006 - 2008

Under a professor's tutelage, I helped develop graduate level program of classes that focused on preparing international TAs to be effective teachers in diverse fields of study.

EFL Teacher in Nagoya, Japan 2003 - 2004

I gained invaluable experience into living and working in another culture and I worked effectively with a team of teachers to make a fun learning community for students.
